

Mayumi Nakao

Mayumi Nakao (b. 1985) currently lives and works in Brooklyn, New York.

1985 Born in Hyogo, Japan

2013 Graduated from Sozosha Design School for Illustrators in Osaka, Japan
Moved to New York City

2015 Became a painting assistant at an artist studio in Brooklyn, New York

2022 Graduated from the Art Students League of New York with a Certificate in Fine Arts majoring in Painting

Exhibitions and Projects

2023 New York, NY, Dan Yoshii Gallery, Mayumi Nakao: Memory Lane

New York, NY, Phyllis Harriman Gallery, Student Concours 2023, McCann Class Show

Tokyo, JP, Koichi Yamamura Gallery, Shared Nostalgia

2022 Tokyo, JP, Tokyo Metropolitan Art Museum, Modern Japan Art Society

Brooklyn, NY, Established Gallery, Below a Brooklyn Sky

New York, NY, Phyllis Harriman Gallery, Final Project Exhibition

New York, NY, Phyllis Harriman Gallery, Student Concours 2022, McCann Class Show

2021 New York, NY, Holiday show at Virginian Artists, The Gift

Brooklyn, NY, ARTS GOWANUS, Gowanus Open Studios

New York, NY, Fortnight Institute, NINE LIVES

Brooklyn, NY, Sunny's Bar, WelcomeBack Home

New York, NY, Fortnight Institute, THE LONELY ONES

Brooklyn, NY, One Brooklyn Bridge Park, At the Table

Upcoming Exhibitions

[Bennett Prize Round 3 Finalist Traveling Exhibition]

2023 Muskegon, MI, Muskegon Museum of Art

Elmira, NY, Arnot Art Museum

2024 Clarksville, TN, Customs House: Museum and Cultural Center

Pittsburgh, PA, Pittsburgh Cultural Trust

Columbus, GA, Bo Barlett Center at Columbus State University

2025 TBD

Philadelphia, PA, Studio Incamminati

Residencies, Grants, and Awards

2023 Finalist, Bennett Prize Round 3

2022 Veneto, IT, Artist in residence

Publications

2023 Create! Magazine, Issue #36

New American Paintings, Issue #164 (Northeast)

American Art Collector, Issue #208

2022 New Visionary Magazine, Issue #4

Collections

Rema Hort Mann Foundation

Beth Rudin de Woody, Private Collection

The Art Students League of New York, Permanent Collection